Dear Parishioners,

As I prepare to say goodbye, I am reminded of a quote from Winnie the Pooh: “How lucky I am to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard.” How true those words are.

Saying goodbye is never easy when you have come to love the people you are leaving. And over these years, I have come to love you.

As this day has approached, I have found myself reflecting not so much on the big moments as on the countless small ones that have filled our time together: the greetings after Mass, the brief conversations in the parking lot, at the parish office, at the schools, or even while shopping at Fortino’s; the familiar faces that have welcomed me week after week; and the simple privilege of sharing in your lives and walking with you in faith. These are the moments I will miss most.

You have been far more than parishioners to me. You have been a family.

And because today is Father's Day, allow me, as your spiritual father, to leave you with one final message.

Do not settle for being merely a good parish. Strive to be a holy parish. Continue becoming the community God is calling you to be. Pray boldly. Serve generously. Welcome joyfully. Love deeply. Never lower your expectations of what God can accomplish through you.

When I first arrived, I shared my desire to help all of us become living saints on earth. That remains my prayer for you today.

Before I leave, there is one final thing I want you to know: I will always carry you with me. I will carry your faces, your smiles, your stories, and your love in my heart. And whenever I stand at the altar, you will be remembered in my prayers.

Thank you for allowing me the extraordinary privilege of serving as your pastor. Thank you for your faith, your kindness, your support, and your love.

May God continue to bless each of you, your families, and this parish community for many years to come.

With gratitude and affection,

Fr. Ross Campbell

God bless you.

THANK YOU!

Fellow Parishioners':

Just a great, big THANK YOU to all the parishioners' who contributed various items to the Knights of Columbus Council 7969 Annual Garage Sale Event. Without your donation support, the Knights could not fulfill their mandate of helping the less fortunate in our community.

Each year, with your gracious item donations, we are able to significantly expand our reach into the community that we serve. We can only do that, because of generous people like you. Please accept the Knights of Columbus 7969 heartfelt thanks now and in the future.

A huge thank you as well, to all the volunteers who tirelessly made our charitable event a huge success and to Fr. Ross, for the use of all the church facilities and parking lots for a seamless transition towards our annual event.

Roger Huot
Garage Sale Coordinator
